

DETECTIVE FIGHTS WITH PICKPOCKETS ON A CROWDED CAR

Cassassa Captures Pair After Battle That Causes Panic in Thirty-fourth St. Trolley.

Traffic was held up for a short time on the Thirty-fourth street trolley line during the rush hour this morning while Detective Frank Cassassa of the Central Office struggled with two pickpockets in a crowded car. Cassassa got his men and got them "with the goods." One stout passenger on the car went on his way rejoicing over the saving of a fat wallet containing $700 in cash and his railroad ticket.

During the holiday extra detectives were put on the Forty-second and Thirty-fourth street lines to guard the passengers against pickpockets. They were removed on New Year's night and yesterday not less than twenty cases of pocket-picking were reported from both lines. Detective Cassassa, who has a record for cleverness and fearlessness, was assigned to the line this morning.

About 8 o'clock he spotted Harry Smith, alias Reiff, and Jacob Levine at Forty-second street and Lexington avenue. They saw him at the same time and promptly "beat it." The detective jumped on a Third Avenue car and went to Lexington Avenue and Thirty-fourth street. He saw his men following a fat man weighted down with grips onto a car.

TACKLES PAIR OF PICKPOCKETS IN CROWD.

Cassassa, unobserved, followed the pickpockets onto the car. They saw him before the car had gone a block and made a quick movement toward the forward end. Cassassa saw Smith try to pass something to his neighbor and made a jump for him. The detective caught the thief by the shoulder and Levine turned on him and tried to break his grip. All three men closed in a struggle and pandemonium was let loose on the trolley.

Women screamed and jumped up on the seats. Cassassa and his quarry surged and pushed and thumped their way among the frightened passengers, but the detective did not loosen his grip. Smith tried to throw something away, but the wily officer tripped him and the three men went in a bunch to the floor.

Cassassa knocked the heads of the men together and pounded their noses into the floor. He told Smith he would kill him if he didn't quit and both men declared they had enough. When all were on their feet again, some of the women began to upbraid Cassassa for his attack. The sleuth smiled grimly and hauled out of Smith's pocket a card-case, in which was $12.55. A number of cards also were found, bearing the name Wm. F. Gorman, No. 283 Pacific street, of William F. Gorman, No. 285 Pacific street.

BOTH CAPTURED MEN HAVE POLICE RECORDS.

Cassassa went to the stout party of the grip and asked him if he had lost anything. The man went pale, dug into his pocket and brought out a heavy wallet.

"They almost had it," he cried.

Then he showed the contents, $700 and his railroad ticket. He declared he had to make a train and couldn't possibly go to court to appear against the pickpockets. He was effusive in his thanks to the detective.

Smith, alias Reiff, is twenty-four years old and lives at No. 144 Forty-third street. He has been arrested eight times for pocket-picking and has served only one term of three months in the workhouse. Levine is twenty-five years old and has been arrested nineteen times in New York. He has served terms in the workhouse, Elmira and Sing Sing, and is wanted in Massachusetts.

EDITOR JAMES COMING TO THE AID OF MYLIUS.

PARIS, Jan. 3.—The State Department at Washington was telegraphically requested today by Edward Holton James, editor of the Liberator, and a nephew of the late William James of Harvard, to delay the deportation of Edward F. Mylius until he can arrive in the United States to defend him.

It was in the Liberator that the libel on King George was printed.

Mr. James leaves here on board the Providence of the French Line to-morrow, taking with him a number of documents connected with the case.

No More Constipation

It's Me for Olive Tablets!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. E. J. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the "cathartic" for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated tablets.

They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—a sick headache—a torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 50c per box. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.
